

---

The big canoe that was launched by the boys of the Outrigger Club yesterday afternoon with a ceremony fitting the history of the boat, is reputed as being the largest canoe in the islands at present. It is 45 feet in length and since the new and heavy bottom was put on it, it requires as many as ten men to carry it out into the water. The canoe was donated to the club by Jack Atkinson, who says that he has is making its final attitude towards the ministry dependent on the definite plans for the establishment of economical and financial principles of the separation and as the government is negotiating with the Poles alone this displeases both the German parties and the Ukrainians.

---

seen none larger, although he has traveled along all the coasts of all the islands.