

OUTRIGGER ELECTION

WILL BE HOT CONTEST

Canoe Club Has Two Tickets In the Field

With both sides claiming to be "harmony advocates" the two factions of the Outrigger Canoe Club will meet at the annual election to be held July 25, in what promises to be a most lively encounter. Two slates are reported to be in the field. One of them was drawn up by Alexander Hume Ford, founder of the club, who is now on his way to the mainland for a vacation, and the other by J. Ashman Beaven, at present secretary of the club.

The nominating committee consisting of W. H. Soper, chairman; John Guild and E. T. Chase have nominated the following tickets:

For president, H. B. Campbell or Dr. Arthur L. Dean; for vice-president, Guy H. Buttolph or L. C. Howland; for secretary, P. H. Deverill or W. R. Ounderkirk; for treasurer, H. A. Asch or L. C. Thompson; for captain, G. D. Center or R. P. Rogers; for chairman of house committee, B. F. Beardmore or F. C. Mighton; for chairman order and entertainment committee, Harold Podmore or Guy Rothwell; for directors (two new ones to be elected), F. G. W. Cooper and H. V. von Holt or A. J. Porter and J. M. Westgate.

The Beaven ticket has not yet been announced. Both Ford and Beaven have been busy collecting proxies and the race will be a close one, and not a little exciting.
