

PULMOTOR AT OUTRIGGER

Editor Advertiser—A number of new men have recently learned to use the pulmotor. This is the apparatus which was purchased a few years ago by a hui of young men as a memorial to the late Robert Sinclair. The following list of those who have now qualified to use the pulmotor is published so that in case of emergency anyone may know to whom to go for assistance. Anyone who is familiar with the use of the machine and whose name is not on the list below will confer a favor by leaving his name with Sasake at the Outrigger or by sending it to the undersigned. Names of men not at present in the Territory are omitted: F. R. Aurbach, W. W. Brier, A. R. Brown, H. B. Campbell, M. Campbell, Jr., D. Center E. Cook, Cornelius, C. S. Davis, A. H. Ford, Y. Hous, J. Horner, Lancaster, W. J. McNeil, M. Melanphy, F. C. Mighton, W. Peters, Sasake, A. L. Silverman, Werner Smith, J. Stickney, J. M. Watt, P. L. Weaver.
