

—HARRY B. CAMPBELL: The work of the Outrigger Club is going on smoothly although further efforts are being made to perfect the harmony of organization. There will be a meeting of the directors soon at which important matters will probably be brought up.