CHINESE TO MEET SOLDIERS SUNDAY

Honolulu League Will Open At
Athletic Park—Ruger Goes
To Schofield Barracks

With the Royal Hawaiian Band in attendance and two good games of baseball between the Hospital Corps, and E Company, Second Infantry and the All-Chinese and the team of the First and Thirty-second Infantries, the fans will be assured of a good afternoon's sports at the opening of the Honolulu Senior League tomorrow afternoon at Athletic Park.

For tomorrow's main game, which starts at three o'clock, Manager Kin Luke of the Chinese has given out the following lineup: Kau Yen, c; Hoon Ki, p; Hoon Chong, 1b; Kualii, 2b; Kai Luke, ss; Swan, 3b; and Yen Ching, En Sue and Leong will form the outfield.

Brinza Will Pitch

For the First-Thirty-second All-Stars, the following players probably will play: Maddis, c; Brinza, p; Stratton, 1b; Boyle, 2b; Holcomb, 3b; Chief, ss, and the following fielders: Judd, Dunlap and Ralls. This is one of the strongest army teams that can be got together and will no doubt be
