DANCE FOR SWIMMERS

Saturday evening the Outrigger Canoe Club will entertain the visiting and local swimmers at a dance at the Waikiki pavilion.

The annual Myrtle-Healani Regatta dance will not be held this year, and the Outrigger Club has decided to make this Saturday night's affair a real Regatta dance, and invite the general public.

The guests of honor will be the visiting mermen and mermaids, including the Misses Claire Galligan, Dorothy Burns and Frances Cowells, and Messrs Ross, Siegel, Jones and Bachrach, also the local swimmers who placed in the big three-day meet, and the members of the Outrigger Club swimming team.

Mrs. H. B. Campbell, Mrs. Harold Castle, Mrs. Wallace R. Farrington, Mrs. Arthur G. Smith, and Mrs. Thomas E. Wall, have expressed their willingness to serve as patronesses.

All members of the club, their friends and the public are invited.
