

TO GIVE HALLOWE'EN PARTY FOR SOLDIERS

Outrigger Club Women Plan Entertainment

A Hallowe'en party will be given by the Women's Auxiliary of the Outrigger Club on Wednesday evening in the premises of the club at Waikiki. Invitations have been issued to 250 enlisted men of the Hawaiian department. More could not be entertained because of the limited space for dancing in the pavilion.

The men of the Outrigger Club are aiding the women generously in their plans, and will cooperate with them in every way possible. They have given the use of the pavilion and lanai and donated the lights for the evening. Their spirit of helpfulness is appreciated by the women.

For the dancing on the upper floor of the pavilion Dude Miller's orchestra has been engaged. The smoking lanai will be given over to old-fashioned Hallowe'en stunts, where fortunes will be told in all the ways time honored as Hallowe'en observances, apples will swing on strings to be bitten for luck, and all the hundred and one ways of testing your good fortune will be given a chance.

Games will be played on the hau-tree lanai, where the older members of the auxiliary will be on hand. Fruit punch will be served during the evening. The party will begin at eight o'clock, and Mrs. F. M. Swanzy, who has the affair in charge, has particularly requested that all members of the Women's Auxiliary should be present. The committees for the evening are as follows:

General committee—Board of directors of the Auxiliary.

Arrangements—Mrs. F. M. Swanzy, chairman.

Refreshments—Mrs. Andrew Fuller, chairman; Mrs. R. C. Brown, Mrs. Gardner Wilkins, Mrs. W. A. Wall.

Decorations—Mrs. Eben Low.

Hallowe'en stunts—Mrs. Isaac Cox, Mrs. Wilbur MacNeil.
