

OUTRIGGER SWIMMING INSTRUCTOR ENLISTS AS YEOMAN IN NAVY

Clair Tait, former Y. M. C. A. swimming instructor, and recently assistant coach for the Outrigger Sharks, enrolled yesterday in the navy. He is rated as a first-class yeoman, and will be stationed at Pearl Harbor. Clair is tickled to death with his new job, and the only regret is that he will have to cut some of his lessons to the young natators at the beach.

Tait made himself famous last year when he trained a number of divers in the swimming contests. He also trained the Outrigger mermaids for the big September meet, and was coach for the young swimmers at the various 'Y' events.
