

OUTRIGGER OUT TO CAPTURE "Y" MEET

Mermaids of Waikiki's Salt Water Know a Thing Or Two About Fresh Liquid

The Outrigger Canoe Club swimming team will have a good many new faces in its line up for the big Y. M. C. A. swims this new week. The club has only been in the swimming game a little over six months. It has produced the biggest list of swimmers that has ever been entered in any of the "Y" aquatic meets.

"Kid" Cook, the club's mainstay in the junior events, will not be seen in action at the coming meet on account of some trouble he is having with his throat. Albert E. Minvielle Jr., will take Cook's place in the meet.

In the women's department the Outrigger Canoe Club has entered six swimmers, while the Women's Auxiliary has come through with four artists. In June of this year Bill Rawlins sent into the Outrigger Club one girl swimmer. He started the ball rolling. In the September meet she proved to be Hawaii's best open water swimmer.

Bachrack Had Praise

Mr. Bachrack, coach of the Illinois Athletic Club, who was then a visitor here, congratulated her and said that he did not know that Hawaii had a swimmer in the same class as the three girl champions he and Rawlins had brought from the mainland.

The girls of the club have taken a firm hold of the swimming game and will give a good account of themselves.

This is the club's second appearance in tank swimming, an art which is still new to the swimmers, but they are determined to master fresh water and the twins who proved too much for them.

Look Out For Miss Dowsett

Miss M. Dowsett, who has been coached by Duke Kahanamoku, is expected to make a good showing, as she is at home in the tank game. Madeline Chapin, Erma Tarleton, Louise Drew and Eleanor Lyser are all tank swimmers and will render a good account of themselves. Miss Helen Martin, although best at home in the salt water, will fight every inch of ground, as she always does.

F. Richardson will be there in the breaststroke event for men. Charles Lambert Jr., Carbis A. Walker, C. Dudley Pratt, B. Burbank, P. Chapin, D. Hitchcock and Chester Sims will be foremost in seeing that the Outrigger Club will receive at least honorable mention at the coming "Y" meet.

Most of the foregoing dope was secured yesterday from "Dad" Center. Just watch how true he calculated.
