Two Leading Teams Will Battle for Championship at Y. M.; Koreans vs. Prisoners

Two bang-up games of volleyball will be staged at the Y. M. C. A. this evening when the Palama team meets the Outrigger and the Koreans battle with the Oahu Prison team.

The first game of the evening will be the feature one, and will practically decide the championship. Should Palama win from the Outrigger team they will be champions for 1918. Should the Outrigger win, the two teams will have to fight it out in another match for the championship.

Dad Center of the Outrigger team will send his best men into the game and is banking on winning the tilt, while Palama is confident of winning the title. Center will have the following players in the lineup: Johnson, Fassoth, Smith, Stickney, Willard, Britton and Center. The Palama lineup will be practically the same as in the last game.

The first battle will be called at 7:30 and the next match will be staged immediately afterwards. A large crowd is expected to be on hand when the two teams take the floor. Ben Clark will have his men in the best of shape for the coming match, and a large delegation of rooters will be present.
