

VOLLEYBALL SET ENJOYS BIG CARD

Three games of volleyball were played at the Outrigger Canoe Club yesterday afternoon as part of the War Work campaign week-end of sports. There was a good crowd on hand to view the battles all of which proved mighty interesting and exciting.

The boys under seventeen defeated the Business Men's team in three straight games. The old-timers trimmed the newcomers in three straight games and the single men beat the married men in a similar manner.

The big game of the day was the "Kamaainas" vs. the "Malihinis." The lineup for the first named team was: Canario, Ruttman, Lindsay, Lambert and David Kahanamoku. The lineup for the second was was Smith, Johnson, Bailey, Nottage and Pease.

Young Lindsay was the big surprise, playing a wonderful game. Both Canario and "Mouse" Smith also shone in the stellar roles. All three games were fast and full of ginger.
