

NINE TEAMS ARE ENTERED IN SET

Nine teams entered the Oahu Service Basketball League last night at a meeting held in the editorial rooms of the Star-Bulletin and considerable business, in connection with embarking upon the season, was discussed and settled. The nine teams entered are: Marines, Wireless, College of Hawaii, Department Hospital, Navy, Coast Defense, Signal Corps, 1st Hawaiian and Outrigger Canoe Club.

The games will probably be played at the National Guard armory but this is not yet decided, it having been left to the league management. The first game will probably be played on January 25.

Draw

The draw in the first round resulted in the following doubleheaders: Marines vs. Wireless and College of Hawaii vs. Department Hospital on the first night, and on the second night Navy vs. Coast Defense and Signal Corps vs. 1st Hawaiian. The Outrigger Club drew a bye.

The following special rules for all games played under the auspices of the Oahu Service Basketball League were adopted:

Rules

All games will be played in four ten-minute quarters with a ten-minute rest between halves and a two-minute rest between quarters. A player taken out in the first quarter may return in the third or fourth quarter and a player taken out in the second quarter may return in the fourth quarter, but no players taken out in the third and fourth quarters shall be allowed to return to play in that game. The teams must provide timers, while the league will provide referees, umpires and a scorer.

Present at the meeting last night were the following: J. Ashman Beaven, president; Mike Jay, secretary; Erickson, representing Coast Defense in absence of Lieut. A. B. Wells, Sergeant Wilcox representing U. S. Marines for Lieut. N. B. Jensen, Major R. K. Ogilvie with Byers for the Department Hospital, C. L. Crawford and Dennison for the College of Hawaii, Rankin representing the Navy for "Doc" E. A. Nichols, K. Decker and W. Nottage representing the Outrigger Canoe Club and S. Silver for the Signal Corps.
