

WIGWAGGERS WIN FROM PILL-BOYS

The Oahu-Service Basketball League opened its schedule before a fair crowd at Moiliili field yesterday afternoon. The Signal Corps ran away with the Department Hospital by a score of 57 to 8 and the 1st Hawaiian forfeited their game to the Outrigger Club. In place of the forfeited game the Outrigger Canoe Club team and a picked team of All-Stars met with the result that the All-Stars won by a score of 29-22.

Canario Stars

In the opener Gilbert M. Canario was the big star for the winners. He scored 15 baskets from the field and three from the foul line. Another shooter was Sweier, forward, landing nine baskets for 18 points. Tyback, McCluskey and Clinton each scored a basket. W. O. Watson for the losers counted six of the eight points with two field and two foul line shots, while R. Dodge got a basket also.

In the exhibition go. Levenson, Malone and Rankin starred for the winners, while Kenneth Decker, Johnson and Nottage shone for the losers.

Dops

The officials were: Henry Haneberg, referee; Ben H. Clarke, umpire; Louis F. Stephens, timekeeper, and Oswald Mayall, scorer.
