

DOUBLEHEADER IS BILLED TODAY AT MOILILI FIELD

Basketball fans will be served a doubleheader this afternoon at Moilili field. Two games will be played, commencing at 2:30 o'clock under the auspices of the Oahu Service Basketball League. One of these, the main event, will be a regular league game while the other will be an exhibition game.

In the first game the Coast Defense team will take on the Fort Kamehameha team. The first named team is reputed to be a strong outfit but the second crew while a dark horse is also said to be fast and sure.

In the main event, the College of Hawaii will take on the Marines. Lieut. N. B. Jensen is reported to have a strong outfit and the collegians will undoubtedly have a tough battle on their hands.

Sunday

Tomorrow there will be another doubleheader at Moilili. Both games will be league fixtures and a large crowd of fans is expected to turn out for the double bill.

The schedule calls for the opener to be played by the Outrigger Canoe Club and the Signal Corps while the Coast Defense will meet the 1st Hawaiian in the second game.

The revised schedule for the remainder of the season was issued this morning by J. Ashman Beaven and distributed to the heads of the various teams.