

SEA-DOGS TRIM WIGWAGGERS AND TOP SET: OUTRIGGERS TROUNCE COLLEGE OF HAWAII

Hospital Corps Forfeits Sunday Game to Coast Defense; Two Men on Sick List

In the two doubleheaders of basketball staged over the week-end there were two exceptionally good games and two fair ones. One of the crack-erjack games was staged Saturday and the other corker was staged Sunday.

On Saturday the Marines defeated the Signal Corps in a hard battle by a score of 54 to 28, but the score does not indicate how hard the two teams fought. Both were on their toes from start to finish. In the second game Saturday the Outrigger trounced the College of Hawaii 47 to 13.

On Sunday the second exhibition game of the day was a whirlwind finishing with the tight score of 25 to 24 in favor of the All-Stars, who played the 1st Hawaiian. The first game of the afternoon ended in a victory of 60 to 12 for the Coast Defense over Fort Kamehameha; the Hospital Corps having forfeited their game to the coast gunners.

Saturday's Games

Adkins was the bright star of the Marines in the first game, making a total of 24 points. Williams of the Marines was next as a stellar light and accounted for 14 points. Gilbert Canario of the Wigwaggers was off color, which helped the Marines to victory.
