Next Sunday's Games

2:30 p. m. National Guard armory—
Signal Corps vs. Coast Defense; First
Hawaiian vs. Department Hospital.

A handful of the faithful saw a one-sided scheduled game played last night in the Oahu-Service Athletic League basketball series in which the Marines walked several time around the First Hawaiian Infantry, 103 to 12, and then the same H. O. F. sat back and took in a real contest, an exhibition one, played between Goeas' Beauts and the College of Hawaii, won by the Beauts, 42-19.

Dooley starred in the first game, if caging baskets makes one a star, he turning in 19 of the species for 38 points, but then Mr. Dooley played the whole game. McGee and Adkins, who both figured in half the game, got credited for nine and seven baskets, respectively. Alberts was the hero for the First Hawaiians, he actually caging as many as three baskets for the losing team.

The lineups:

Marines—McGee, Dooley, Adkins, Bash and Williams. In the second half Thompson for McGee, Messford for Adkins and Callahan for Williams.

First Hawaiian Infantry—Martins, Alberts, Spencer, Kuhlmann and Kamaleluwai. In third quarter Kahiki for Kuhlmann and Kamai for Kamaleluwai, and in fourth quarter Thompson for Spencer.

The College of Hawaii won its scheduled game from the Department Hospital, 2-0, through the forfeiture route.

The College of Hawaii lads, led by Kan Leong, then tackled Goeas' Beauts, was a rattling good one, though. Saruhashi was the star for the winners, while Kan Leong shone the College of Hawaii.

The next double-header will be staged next Sunday afternoon, beginning at 2:30 o'clock. In the opening game the Signal Corps and Coast Defense, two well-matched teams, will come together. In the second the First Hawaiian and Department Hospital are scheduled to meet. The sides might make a mistake and be on hand in time for the game. They should be forced to meet each other, to decide that cellar tie between them.
