

OUTRIGGERS NOSE OUT TOWNIES IN THRILLER

Great Football Served Up to Medium-Sized Crowd at Moiliili Field—Individual Stars Plentiful—Surfriders Do Good Team Work—Stickney Puts Over Grand Gallop

By DUDLEY BURROWS

A thrill a minute was the order of the day at Moiliili park yesterday afternoon when the football aggregations representing the Outrigger and Town clubs met for the second time this season. After a fierce contest, which kept the limited number of spectators on their toes every second, the Outriggers emerged victorious by the close score of 9-7.

No better football has been played on the Pacific coast this year, in the opinion of the writer, than the brand which the Outriggers, under the coaching of "Big Bill" Inman, and the Town club, under "Scotty" Schuman, delivered yesterday. The Outriggers had slightly the better knowledge of concerted action, but this was all but offset by the brilliant individual work of the opposing eleven.

The Star

The bright particular star of the afternoon, despite the fact that he was on the losing side, was "Buck" Aarona, the husky Kamehameha back, who tore through the Outrigger line time after time. Aarona, it was who made the sole touchdown which his club was able to register, following a series of brilliant runs for 10 and 20 yards around the ends.

The first score of the day was made by Teddy Searle, the diminutive Puna-hou star, who dropped a pretty field goal from the 40-yard line in the last few minutes of play in the first period. The ball sailed squarely between the goal-posts and the Outrigger hosts howled with joy.

Fumbles

Unfortunate fumbles marred the chances of the Town club to push over a touchdown in this quarter and paved the way for a 60-yard scamper by Stickney in the second period through a broken field. Thurston finally ran Stickney down, but not until the Outrigger back had crossed the goal line for a score. Searle failed to convert and the score was 9-0.

The Town club came back with a vengeance in the third quarter, hammering the Outrigger line with alternate cross tackle and end-shift plays, Aarona carrying the ball four out of every five minutes. The big fellow finally went over the Outrigger line and Crabbe kicked a pretty goal.

From then on the battle raged viciously, but with a high degree of sportsmanship being exhibited at all times. Even "Piper" Rodrigues, whose hot blood has been responsible for his ejection from several contests, managed to control himself and stick in the game to the end.

Hard Luck

The Town club had particular hard luck with their forward passes, several of which came within an ace of conversion, only to be dropped by the receiving player, evidently suffering from over-anxiety.

Aarona went out of the game toward the end of the third quarter, suffering from a twisted ankle; but he came back early in the final period and played a bang-up game to the end.

The general work of Canario, D. Brown, Anderson and Kahanamoku, for the Outriggers; and of Rodriguez, H. Clark, Morgan and Makalena, for the Town club, was worthy of especial mention. Rodriguez had slightly the better of Searle in the punting duels.
