

Outriggers and Townies Meet In Final Grid Game

Both Teams Confident of Victory: Winner To Finish Second In Football Series

Honolulu's final football battle of the season will be staged this afternoon at Moiliili Field, when the Townies and Outriggers meet, beginning at 3 o'clock. It being the only afternoon athletic offering for the holiday a record crowd of spectators will undoubtedly be on hand. Beside, the two elevens will settle which team will be second in the series of games played, the College of Hawaii having won the championship, without a defeat.

Today's encounter should be all that the Christmas Day tilt between the two squads was, when the Outriggers won by two points. Practically the same lineup will be used by the opposing sides. Both Bill Inman of the Waikiki paddlers and "Scotty" Schuman of the Townies are confident of victory.

The teams will face each other as follows;

Townies—Rodrigues, le.; H. Clark, lt.; Morgan, lg.; W. Clark, c.; Robinson, rg.; Aylett, rt.; Among, re.; Makalena, qb.; Crabbe, lh.; Thurston, rh., and Aarona, fb.

Outriggers—Thompson, re.; Fuller, rt.; O'Sullivan, rg.; Anderson, c.; King, lg.; Kahanamoku, lt.; W. Thompson, le.; Spencer, qb.; Searle, lh.; Stickney, rh., and Canario, fb.
