

Palama Juniors Win

The Junior basketball team of Palama Settlement won the championship in the A. A. U. league last night when the Outrigger Juniors forfeited the game scheduled to be played at Palama.

A Midget Basketball League has been organized and the first game will be played on Friday. All contests will be played at the Palama gym. Teams, members of which weigh under 110 pounds each, are entered from the Outrigger Club, the Braves Athletic Club and the Palama Settlement.

The Braves and Palamas will meet Friday night.
