SURF RIDERS FALL BEFORE PALAMA SET

Battling from start to finish, making wonderful recoveries of impossible placements, the Palamas and Outriggers staged a wonderful affair yesterday morning at the Palama gym in the second game of the playoff series in the A. A. U. senior division volleyball league. The scores favored Palama, 15-11 and 15-10. The Outrigger defeated the Kaimukis Friday and tonight the Palamas play the Kaimukis. In the event of a defeat for the red ristrict men, the championship goes to Palama, otherwise the series will be exactly where it was before with a victory for each team.

Lionel Brash played for Palama yesterday morning and proved the star, Smith, Canario and Bailey shone for the losers.
