WITHINGTON MAY COACH OUTRIGGER

Dr. Paul Withington, famous Harvard oarsman and football man, may coach the Outrigger Canoe club grid team this year.
He was asked by several of the players to undertake the job and is reported to have agreed.

Bill Inman was coach last year, but it is known that he would be quite willing to turn over the job to Dr. Withington.

Carl Stever, former Nevada university football player, will turn out with the Outrigger team.
