

HARVARD ATHLETE OUTRIGGER CLUB FOOTBALL COACH

Paul Withington Takes Over the Training of Beach Club Candidates

Dr. Paul Withington, famous Harvard athlete, will hereafter coach the Outrigger football team, according to an announcement made by Captain Bill Inman of the team. Withington yesterday was on hand at the afternoon practice of the squad and, with an enthusiastic bunch of candidates, started in his work with the Beach Club's pigskin talent.

The candidates who are out at present for the line are W. Inman, W. Anderson, G. Campbell, C. King, J. Hart, L. Hart, C. Kapukui, S. Fuller, G. Colterjohn, W. Thompson, L. Hicks, D. Kahanamoku, P. O'Sullivan.

Aspirants who yearn for backfield places on the Outrigger lineup are: G. Canario and C. Crozier who are out for the position of quarterback; J. Stiekney, W. Hollinger, F. Callagin, E. Parker, C. Campbell, W. Bryant.

About 17 candidates were out at yesterday's practice at Moiliili. By the end of the week it is expected that all will be out for the daily grind. The fact that Withington is to act as advisor to the team is only further corroboration of the statement by the Outriggers that they will have the best all around team in the Islands by the time the season is opened.
