

HERE are some members of the Outrigger Club football team, as they looked when they turned out for practice at Moillili Park the other day. A glance at these candidates will show that the team is not going to lack for beef in the line. Captain Inman is seen with the ball in the center of the picture. The announcement that Dr. Paul Withington is to coach the Outriggers makes it certain that they will have one of the top-notch teams of the Islands.
