One of the biggest crowds that ever graced a football game on local fields is expected to be present Sunday afternoon at Moiliili park to see the Waikikis and the Outriggers play the crucial game of the major series. While this will be the first game of the season for the two teams, it will nevertheless be a deciding mill. While the University of Hawaii and Palama are conceded strong teams, the dopesters rate the Walkikis and Outriggers as much stronger.

Some Mill Hence the fight Sunday at Moiliili will probably be for the honor of playing the New Year's Day game against the University of Nevada and with this honor in view both teams may be expected to battle every inch of the way.

It will certainly be no "cinch"

PROBABLE LINEUPS Outrigger— Walkikis— Fuller r.e.l. Rodrigues Withington r.t. Clarke Hiorth r.g. Robinson Anderson c. Clark Kaupiko l.g.r. O'Sullivan Kahananoku l.tr. Kanuha Thompson l.e. Gilman Parker q. Rosa Hoilinger r.h.l. Crabbe Hart l.hr. Aarona Andrews f. Thurston Officials Umpire—Zimmerman, Refere—Von Holt, Head Linesman—Ligda. Timers—Stephens and Carsen.	Ayiett, Galiigan, Mong, Kahele, to-the-minute dope places the odds the other way entirely. Both teams have reported that some of their best men are on the injured list. But this kind of dope may be taken with the usual grain of salt for when the game starts, lots of semi-injured men will feel themselves perfectly capable of handling everything coming their way. Reserves Just how the teams figure on one another may be judged by the fact that neither side is giving its com- plete and final lineup and does not intend to spring it. When the teams take the field and lineup for the whistle, then and then only will the fans know who will play. The Walkikis have in reserve	George Leal, recently back from the mainland. The Outriggers have Austin, Slade, John Hollinger, Earl Gall, Arthur Gall, Coulterjohn, Hicks, Morgan, Keeff, McTaggart, Boyd,