

NEW BASKETBALL LEAGUE HAS 120 GAMES TO PLAY, AMONG 16 TEAMS

Piercy Nottage Is President of Soldier-Civilian Athletic Organization

One hundred and twenty games of basketball, to be completed in a seven-and-a-half-week schedule, beginning January 11, were decided on by the Oahu Amateur Basketball League, which organized and chose a name at a meeting held last night in the office of Major Lewis, army department morale officer, in the Young building.

Officers of the league are: President, Piercy H. Nottage; vice-president, Dr. A. E. Nichols; secretary-treasurer, Major Lewis.

Mr. Nottage and Major Lewis were named as a schedule committee, to work out the disposition of the 120 games.

The following will be represented by teams composing the league:

Schofield Service Club, Outrigger Canoe Club, Fort Ruger Post Club, Fort De Russy Service Club, Honolulu Amateur Athletic Club, All-Around Chinese Athletic Club, Fort Kamehameha Athletic Club, Pearl Harbor Athletic Club, Luke Field Post Club, Fort Shafter Service Club, National Guard, University of Hawaii, Palama Club, Waikiki Club, Honolulu Service Club, and possibly the marine detachment at Pearl Harbor.

Cups have been donated by the Oahu Sporting Goods Company and Honolulu Sporting Goods Company for winners of first and second places.
