

SATURDAY GAME IS TALK OF TOWN

GILMAN TO PLAY FOR OUTRIGGERS

Providing the weather is at all promising, there will be a record-breaking crowd on hand at Alexander field Saturday for the game between the Outrigger Canoe club football team and the University of Nevada eleven which defeated the University of Hawaii team last Saturday.

J. Atherton Gilman, Harvard and all-American tackle of 1915, has accepted the invitation of the officials of the Outrigger Canoe club team and will play for the team. Lionel "Dusky" Brash of Palama, also invited, will be unable to accept the invitation owing to the recent death of his brother on Kauai.

Stronger

The addition of Gilman will greatly strengthen the Outrigger team. It will give the surfers eleven a stronger line thus permitting the backfield to get in its work without interference from the opposing eleven. With a good line in front of them Searle, Hopii, Stickney, Andrews, Campbell, Hart, Andrews and Slade will be in a position to use the aerial game to greater advantage. On the defense Stickney, Searle and Hopii stand out as wonderful men to hold down and break up attempted forward passes.

Certain it is that with Dr. Paul Withington on one side of the line and Atherton Gilman on the other, the Nevada team will shortly discover its inability to make gain of a substantial kind through the line. Gilman can always be depended upon to spill three men. He can always be depended upon to break up any hesitation work back of the opposing line. Withington is a strong lineman and can hold his own against two men easily. While not as fast as Gilman he is a tower of strength.

Sure Men

Anderson at center is reliable. Nevada will find it almost impossible to make gains through center. As to running around ends, Slade is the ideal man to break up this play for he is not only fast in covering ground but is also a sure-fire tackler. In fact Slade is one of the very best tacklers in the islands.

Nevada will have to use its entire repertoire of tricks if it hopes to beat the Outrigger team. Furthermore it will have to rely largely on the overhead game for gains and the surfers will be on the lookout for this.

Tickets for the game are going well. The seat sale has been exceptionally promising and it will be even a bigger crowd Saturday than last week-end.
