NO SWIMMING MEET DURING FEBRUARY

BOTH MANAGERS FEEL CONFIDENT OF TEAMS

Both managers of the teams, the Outrigger Canoe club and the University of Nevada, feel confident of victory tomorrow in the game at Alexander Field. Here is what they say:

By FRED BAILEY

Manager Outrigger Team

We'll be ready when the whistle blows to give the best that is in us for Hawaii. We know that we will be up against a strong combination when we face the Nevada team so we are not taking anything for granted. We figure our team is well balanced. We have speed in the backfield and weight on the line and we are raring to go.

WEATHER MAN SAYS FINE FOR SATURDAY

L. H. Datnagerfield, in charge of the U. S. weather bureau, has predicted fine weather for the game tomorrow afternoon at Alexander field: "Continued gentle to moderate, east to southeast breezes, tonight and Saturday with showers mostly in the mountains and to the windward."
