

ALL-AROUNDS IN VOLLEYBALL WIN FROM DEAN TEAM

Outriggers Have Soft Snap Defeating Guards; Next Games Saturday Night

In the senior Hawaiian A. A. U. volleyball league games last night at the Central "Y" the All-around Chinese fought a hard battle with the University of Hawaii. The A. C. As. took first set 15-4. The Rainbows in the second set with lots of fight won 15-4. The last and final set was an exhibition of hard slamming and fast rolling of the ball, the A. C. As winning by the close margin of 15-13. For the A. C. As Kanky Chun and Buny Chung did the slamming, while the whole University team stood out about evenly.

A. C. As—Buny Chung, Tai Hang Leong, Bob Chung, Kanky Chun, Frank Tyau, Tai Sun Yun, Ah Lum, Ting Young.

University—Waters, Heminger, McGill, Wicke, J. Morse, Jacobson.

Second Game

The second game of the evening between the Outriggers and the National Guard team was a walk away for the surfriders, they winning both sets in succession by 15-7 and 15-3.

The Outriggers look like real champions already.

National Guard—R. Trevennen, C. Willis, T. Enos, S. Fuller, E. Paalua, K. Naone.

Outriggers—D. Waratti, G. May, C. Lambert, W. Muirhead, G. Piltz, T. Singlehurst, P. Deverill, Dease.

Referee for both games was Wallace E. Saffery.

The next games are Saturday, at Palama Settlement, Police vs. University and Nuuanu Y vs. Outriggers
