By SKIP GORDON

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, March 14.—The devotees of sport at the Inland post offered up sacrifices and festivities in honor of their high gods today with the most comprehensive and ambitious sports program ever staged in these badlands. Golf, tennis, baseball and soccer, with swimming at Haleiwa featured the celebration of All Sports day.

NEW CLUBHOUSE OPENED

The high light of the day came with the opening of the new clubhouse for the sporty 18-hole golf club, which was formally taken over after the anniversary tournament for M. T. Mason (Honolulu Sporting Goods. Co.) perpetual trophy. The tournament had many entries and was played off by threesomes, medal play, over the 36-hole route, with three-quarter handicaps allowed.

Warrant Officer Cake won the trophy with a net score of 135, Lieut. Dayton was second with 137, Adcock was third with 139, General Wolf, division commander, fourth with 142, and Bobby Hunter fifth with 143. The runner up was awarded a half dozen golf balls, and third place, three.

OTHER SPORTS

In the afternoon baseball, tennis, golf, polo and soccer were played. The soccer exhibition was snappy, with the Reds downing the Blues 3-1.

In baseball the Cactusmen defeated the Staff 7-4, the Chicks walloped the Beaver 9-6 in a game featured by Tom's two home runs, the Sky Pilots laid it on the Clansmen 10-8, the Wheeler Field Filers downed the Dragon 7-5 and the Gimlets defeated the Wolves 3-1 after ten snappy innings.

In polo, the 27th Infantry defeated the 35th Infantry 5-1, the 19th Infantry defeated the 11th F.A. 9-1 and the 13th F.A. defeated the 8th F.A. 3-0. Fast tennis was played on three courts, and many took advantage of the convoy that was run to the Soldiers' Beach at Haleiwa for swimming.

All of the exhibitions were well attended, and so great was the interest in the program that the All Sports Day will probably be an annual feature in the future athletic policy of the post.

CACTUSMEN 7—STAFF 4

The Cactusmen, ably assisted by the Staff Midgets' infield won a rather haphazard game from the latter team this morning 7-4. The Staff used up 17 players, three of them
