

IWILEIS DEFEAT NUUANU 'Y' IN VOLLEYBALL MIX

Outriggers Played With a Patched-Up Lineup Last Night At Nuuanu 'Y'

Two more games were played in the A. A. U. Volleyball league race last Friday at the Nuuanu "Y" courts. The Iwileis pulled a mild surprise by thumping the Nuuanu "Y" slammers in three sizzling sets in the opener. The scores were 15-10, 15-17 and 15-12.

With a patched up lineup of five players the Outrigger Canoe club proved to be easy meat for the Central "Y" players in the second match. The Centralites won as they pleased, 15-1 and 15-1.

The fans were swept off their seats in the first match when the Iwileis nosed out the Nuuanuites in three hotly contested sets. The second set of this game was a thriller but superior slamming turned the trick for the Nuuanu team.

Iwileis—McLellan, capt.; Thomas Pickard, coach; Marcello, Catalino, Sam Hart, J. Akina, Puln and Juliana.

Nuuanu "Y"—A. Chock, H. Lin, Chow Char, D. Au, Leong Fong, Y. O. Leong and Joseph Chun.

Central "Y" — Wagner, Maket, Murakami, Karratti and Charles Char.

Outrigger Canoe Club—Perry, Kikona, Fuller, Cunningham and Singlehurst.
