CENTRALITES ARE LEADERS IN A.A.U. VOLLEYBALL LOOP

Palama Is Half a Game Behind Leaders; Race Is Getting Hot

Winning volleyball games is getting to be a habit with Coach Merill Porter's Central "Y" sextette. In the A. A. U. league twinheader Thursday night the Centralites trimmed the A. C. A.s in two straight sets, 15-7 and 15-3.

In the other game, the Iwileis beat the Outriggers 15-9 and 15-13.

The work of the Central "Y" duet, Charles Wagner and William Maket was again the feature of the victors. It was their slamming tactics that beat the Dragons. Charles Char, Mona Williams and Karratti played brilliantly.

The Iwileis toyed around with the Surfriders in the second tilt and then got into trouble. It was a good game while it lasted, the Outriggers performing with but four men.

The Central "Y" team is leading the league at the present moment, being half a game ahead of Palama Settlement. The Centralites have completed their schedule while the Pals must play and defeat the Nuuanu "Y" six to be tied with the Centralites for the leadership.
