

AAU VOLLEYBALL CHAMPIONSHIP AT STAKE TOMORROW

Palama Clash With Central 'Y' For 1928 Title At Central Court

The 1928 championship of the A. A. U. Volleyball league will be decided tomorrow night at the Central "Y" gymnasium at 7:30 o'clock when the Palama Settlement sextet and the Central Y. M. C. A. team clash.

Tonight the Firemen and the Iwileis are slated to clash in the only game remaining in the schedule. The Outriggers forfeited their game to the A. C. A.'s.

The Central "Y" team will have to depend upon its "six musketeers"—Charles Wagner, Bill Maket, Charles Chow, Mona Williams, "Lefty" Murakami and A. Karratti.

Coach Wilder Parker will pick a starting lineup from Louis Morton, K. F. Chow, William Bruhn, James Fujii, Tom Hugo, Walter Holt and George Telles.
