

CRABBE BOYS TO ENTER OUTRIGGER AQUATIC PROGRAM

'Buddy' Crabbe, Ellis, Newport and Leading Women Swimmers Are Entered

Some of Hawaii's leading men and women swimmers are entered in the annual Thanksgiving Day aquatic program to be staged by the Outrigger Canoe club at the beach of Waikiki.

Such men swimmers as Clarence ("Buster") Crabbe, medley record holder and national mile champion; Tom Ellis, Newport boys and Eddie ("Buddy") Crabbe are entered.

Lily Bowmer May heads the women entries. Other prominent aqua churners include Mildred Slaght, Janice Lovett, Lora Hines, the Hammond girls and others.

Entries

The entry list up to the present time, as announced by George E. Cherry of the Outrigger Canoe club, includes:

Castle swim—Clarence ("Buster") Crabbe, Eddie ("Buddy") Crabbe, Tom Ellis, Bill Newport, Nason Newport.

Women's public bath open—Lily Bowmer May, Janice Lovett, Mildred Slaght.

Public bath swim for men over 30—Clifford Gessler, Robert Askew, Alexander Tullock.

Public bath swim for boys under 18—Kenneth Wood.

Cunha swim for novice girls—Betty Hammond, Dorothy Hammond, Virginia Hammond, Loretta Gillespie, "Tony" Bahr, Frances Pickerton, Lora Hines and Olga Clarke.

Cunha swim for boys under 16—Lickey Carmichael, Roy Crowe, W. Crowe, Henry Gibbins.

The entries are pouring in steadily and Cherry expects a record list this year. Many of the members are practicing faithfully every afternoon and some fast times are due to be made by the contestants.