

SURFBOARD MEET IS OPEN TO ALL, COMMITTEE SAYS

Entry Blanks Ready; Best Paddlers From Beach Clubs Will Compete

The fifth annual surfboard paddling races to be held on the Waikiki canal New Year's morning, commencing at 9:30 a. m., are open to all paddlers in the islands.

The assistance of the Outrigger Canoe club in aiding the direction of the events should not be confused with the idea that it is a "closed meet."

Paddlers from other beach clubs are finishing up their practices in readiness for the events, and the competition as far as clubs are concerned, will be keen among the Outrigger Canoe club and the Hui Nalu club. However, paddlers not connected with any club are invited to participate, and as it is difficult to get around to all such paddlers, the newspapers are being used by the committee in charge to notify all that they are welcome. Entry blanks may be had at the office of the Outrigger Canoe club or at the Dawkins, Benny Co., Limited, Fort St. jewelers. Blanks may also be had from the committee in charge, composed of Cecil Benny, "Dad" Center and Mr. Cherry.

CAGE LEAGUE TO OPEN PLAY ON JANUARY 14

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

WAILUKU, Maui, Dec. 23.—The opening date of the annual cheechako and 50-50 basketball leagues have been set for January 14 with eight districts competing. The Cheechako league is a 100-pound league for boys just breaking into basketball and is the biggest thing in this sport for the Valley Isle kids. The 50-50 league is also for boys, but for those who cannot qualify in any other league; a kind of a kids'-last-chance for those who are not fast enough to get into a team in some other league. Both of these leagues are under the auspices of the Alexander House Settlement.

These races are being sponsored by the Shell Co., as they were last year.

Each of the huge steel doors of the Bank of England vaults weighs 12 tons.