

First Tilt Scheduled For Sunday Afternoon

Latest Water Sport at Waikiki Has Everybody Interested

By RED McQUEEN

A gathering of some fifty odd folks—Beach Boys and officials of the Hui Nalu club—William B. Leeds, Jr., and party—a representative of the Outrigger club, and the writer—gathered as the guests of R. A. Sproule, prominent visiting sports enthusiast, at the Honolulu Chop Sui House Wednesday night and laid definite plans for a Surfboard Polo series between the Outrigger Canoe club and the Hui Nalu team.

After announcements were made that the Royal Hawaiian Hotel, Mrs. William B. Leeds, Jr., and Frederick Wedel had offered awards for series, it was voted to stage the first of the two-out-of-three competes to decide the championship Sunday afternoon, the other exhibitions following on successive Sundays.

BIG FORWARD STEP

Last night's dinner marked the first big forward step towards the development of Surfboard Polo, the century's latest sports compet, origi-

(Continued on Page 11)