

SURFBOARD POLOISTS IN SECOND BATTLE SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Victory for Hui Nalu Club Will Decide Series and Net
Them the Mrs. William B. Leeds, Jr. and Royal Hawaiian Hotel Awards.

THE surfboard polo series between the Hui Nalu "Beach Boys" and the Outrigger Canoe club for the Mrs. William B. Leeds, Jr., and Royal Hawaiian Hotel awards may be brought to a close at the beach tomorrow afternoon when the above two teams paddle in the second game of the two-out-of-three series. Last Sunday the Hui Nalu seven blanked their beach neighbors 5 to 0. Another win tomorrow will give the Hui Nalus the series and the coveted awards.

OUTRIGGERS STRONGER

Although the Black and Gold club enters the conflict as favorites, they should not find the Red and White boys as easy a foe as they did last Sunday. Gay Harris, O.C.O. skipper, has had his boys out every night in preparation for Sunday's tussle and predicts that his boys will give the Louie Kahanamoku-captained outfit a real test tomorrow.

The contest will be waged at the same spot in front of the Royal Hawaiian hotel and at the same hour, 3 o'clock. Both teams will take to the water with the same lineups as last Sunday. The officials will likewise be the same as last Sunday.

FIELDS IS WINNER IN TEN ROUNDS

Defeats Baby Joe Gans;
Is In Line for Title
Scrap

(United Press By R.C.A.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—Jackie Fields, Los Angeles welterweight, took another step towards the top of the ladder tonight when he won a decision from Baby Joe Gans in ten rounds.

Fields took every round and made a remarkable showing.

After the first round Gans was weak, and was on the verge of a knockout several times. Fields kept boring into him with an assortment of wallops, but was unable to connect with a final knockout punch.

Ringsiders agreed that the victory over Gans, coupled with recent triumphs over Sergeant Sammy Baker and others, makes Fields without question the leading contender for Joe Dundee's welterweight title.

JUNIORS REOPEN SERIES

The Hui Nalu "Blacks" and "Golds" will reopen their series for the Frederick Wedel Junior award this same afternoon. Last Sunday these two teams battled to a scoreless tie in the first game of the two-out-of-three series. Their game is looked forward to with just as much interest as the senior match and promises to be equally as hard fought.
