

HOT VOLLEYBALL TILTS TOMORROW

A. A. U. Vollists Tuning Up For Hectic Week of Activity

Two red hot volleyball games loom tomorrow night at the Central "Y" court in the Senior A. A. U. league.

At 7 o'clock, the Nuuanu "Y" and the Outrigger Canoeists will hook up in the opener. This will be followed by the Central "Y"-Hawaiian Pines tilt.

The Surfriders have taken the game seriously and should give the Nuuanu slammers a nice time. The latter team is being favored to win despite the fact it is down in the cellar.

In the other game the Central "Y" sextet are favored over the Cannons. The Pines will offer some merry opposition if they hit the right combination.

On Friday night at the Army-Navy "Y" gymnasium, the Firemen and the Palama Settlement sextets will make "hookees" at 7 o'clock. The Pines and the Nuuanu "Y" pill ticklers will play in the finale. Both should be rip-snorting games.
