

CENTRAL Y. DOWNS PINE VOLLISTS IN ONE-SIDED GAME

"Pop" Pfaender's Nuuanu Yers Defeat Outriggers in Hectic Contest—Centrals Show Plenty of Class in Downing Piners in Straight Sets

LEAGUE STANDING

	W.	L.	Pct.
Fire Department	3	0	1.000
Central Y	2	1	.666
Haw'n. Pines	2	1	.666
Palama Settlement	1	1	.500
Nuuanu Y	1	2	.333
Outrigger C. C.	1	2	.333
A. C. A.	0	3	.000

A crack Central Y.M.C.A. volleyball team that fed and slammed with irresistible force demolished the until last night invincible Hawaiian Pines sextette in two straight sets 15-0 and 15-2 before a stunted crowd at the Central Y court in the feature of the A. A. U. net tilts.

"Pop" Pfaender's Nuuanu Y slammers subdued the Beach Combers from the Outrigger Canoe club in three hard fought sets 5-15, 15-11 and 15-11 to chalk up their first win of the season in the opening game.

OUTRIGGER LEADS

Tom Singlehurst, Victor Kahn and Perry were playing nifty ball for the paddlers in the first set and with the aid of Buster Crabbe, Harold Harvey and R. Reid romped through the Nuuanu Yers without trouble. It was an entirely different thing in the next set for Captain Al Chock and David Au went into the game to bolster up the Reds' defense with such success that the Canoelists assaulted their barricade in vain.

Al Chock broke through the Outrigger wall time and again with lightning thrusts while Leong Fong and Ah Khan Wong also came in with some burning smashes to force the Beach boys into submission. Chow Char and "Far Sung" Ito performed well in catching the Outrigger shots and feeding set-ups.

In the final set, Tom Singlehurst's youngsters jumped into the lead after some hot repartees, 7-6. Nuuanu Y quickly surged past the Canoemen and started on a furious drive which the Neptunes stopped only temporarily. After the score stood 14-11 for the winners, Tom Singlehurst knocked one out of bounds and the Yers took their first victory.

Captain Chock was the bright light of the night blocking Singlehurst's bangs and coming through with many blistering whacks himself. Char, A. K. Wong and Fong did some dandy work for the Yers in placements and slams while Au and Ito were good in feeding.

CENTRAL Y WINS

Central Y made it short and snappy against the Hawaiian Pines and lost the ball only a few times to run up a steady count for a love set. Bill Maket, Brede Karratti hitting the ball with the impact of a mule's kick could not be denied and their shots shattered the Pine defense. Nobuo Murakami, Charlie Char and Mona Williams made it possible for these bangers to put over the "killers" with almost flawless feeding. Alec Karratti helped in both feeding and slamming.

Central Y's easy conquest of the league-leading Cannons came as a distinct surprise for though many had favored the Centralites to come through, the game was expected to be hotly contested.

NEXT GAMES

Manager Edward P. Boyle's Firemen will meet their last real obstacle in their drive for the title in the Palama Settlement Friday night at the Army and Navy Y court at 7 o'clock. The Nuuanu Yers and the Hawaiian Pines will mix in the closing number.

Last night's lineups: Outrigger Canoe club, R. Reid, G. Perry, Clarence Crabbe, T. Singlehurst, H. Harvey, V. Kahn. Nuuanu Y: H. Lin, Ed Cha, A. K. Wong, T. Ito, A. Leong Fong, David Au and Al Chock.

Hawaiian Pines: Akina, Marciel, Pedro, Cneong Wong, Julian, Kan Mun Chun, and Catalino. Central Y: Mona Williams, Bill Maket, Brede Karratti, N. Murakami, Alec Karratti and Charlie Char.

"Red" Kauahi refereed the matches and was aided by Tom E. Saffery, umpire; Peterson, Fat and Bayau as linesmen. Emanuel Freitas was scorer.

Missions

(Continued from Page 12)

the Hollywood Stars out 5 to 3.

The Los Angeles-Sacramento game was postponed on account of the funeral of Charles Moreing, late part-owner of the Sacramento club.

Results:

AT OAKLAND	R.	H.	E.
San Francisco	2	8	1
Oakland	1	8	1
AT SAN FRANCISCO
Portland	1	5	1
Mission	6	10	0
AT LOS ANGELES
Seattle	5	7	3
Hollywood	3	5	1