

SWIMMING CLUBS WILL ENTER BIG MEET AT Y.M.C.A.

Carnival Swimming Program Expected to Attract Stars; Ross May Not Swim

Honolulu swimming clubs will be entered in the big Carnival swimming meet which will be held at the Y. M. C. A. in February. The Healanis will have a team entered, according to Lawrence Cunha, and the Palama swimmers will be seen in action. Harvey Chilton has had his natators out for practise, and if Clarence Lane can get some practise the team will enter.

The Outrigger Club has cut a big swath in swimming during the past year, and "Dad" Center has developed a number of stars. The Hui Nalus as usual will have a strong team and if Duke decides to enter, may break into the limelight with some new records.

It is hardly possible that Norman Ross will be seen in action at the coming meet, as he is now in the aviation school, but in his letter last week said that he wanted one more race in Honolulu before he journeyed across the Atlantic. Ross does not complete his course until February 16, which would give him but little time to come here, providing he was granted a furlough.
