

MRS. F. M. SWANZY NAMED PRESIDENT OF WOMEN'S CLUB

Auxiliary of Outrigger Canoe Club Elects Officers; Dis- cuss Bathing Suits

Mrs. F. M. Swanzy was elected president of the Women's Auxiliary of the Outrigger Canoe Club at an election held yesterday at the Library of Hawaii. Others elected were Mrs. Andrew Fuller, first vice-president; Mrs. Wilbur J. MacNeil, second vice-president; Mrs. W. A. Wall, secretary, and Mrs. Raymond C. Brown, treasurer.

These officers and Mrs. J. A. Gilman, Mrs. Eben Low, Miss Marie Ehrhorn, Mrs. Arthur G. Smith, Mrs. Alfred C. M. Rasch, Mrs. John F. Soper, and Miss Frances Lawrence constitute the board of directors of the auxiliary.

It was decided to increase the membership maximum from 535 to 600. Mrs. Arthur G. Smith spoke on food conservation and thrift stamps, and Mrs. L. Fullard Leo, the A. A. U. representative, gave a short talk on the necessity of increasing the interest in swimming, and the promotion of meets. Mrs. Leo with Mrs. Smith will form a committee to decide on bathing suits.
