

Service Flag of Outrigger Club Is Unfurled

Contains One Hundred and Thirty Stars and Each Star Bears Name of Man It Represents:
Presented By Pan-Pacific
Union

As part of a day devoted to patriotism, yesterday, the Outrigger Canoe Club paid signal honor to its 130 members who are now in the service of their country in the fight against the Central Powers. A great flag containing a star for each member now under arms was given to the breeze at the club grounds at Waikiki amid speeches by Governor Pinkham, who presented the flag, and Judge Dole, who accepted it in the name of the club.

At five o'clock when the program began with a number by the Hawaiian band, several hundred of the club members and friends gathered at the grounds. Governor Pinkham, in presenting the flag for the Pan-Pacific Union, lauded the fine spirit displayed by the young men of the club who have given of the vigor and manhood they have attained as its members and said that the gospel of the great outdoors on which it is founded makes for that sort of manhood.

Both he and Mr. Dole paid their respects to Alexander Hume Ford of the Pan-Pacific Union as "a promoter whose enterprises are real promotions."

The flag was unveiled by Mrs. Raymond C. Brown, who is the mother of a charter member of the club who is now in the service. Both of the principal speakers are also charter members.

List Not Complete

The list of Outrigger Club members who should have their names on the stars is by no means complete, and it is requested that friends send to President E. T. Chase, of the Outrigger Club, names of members who should have stars, but whose names have been so far omitted.
