

DUKE WILL NOT SWIM AT NEPTUNE BEACH

Duke Kahanamoku, the world's greatest sprint swimmer, will not go to the mainland tomorrow to compete in the 100 yard national championship at Neptune Beach. He reached his decision today after finding out that he could not do justice to himself with his leg injured. F. J. Halton cabled Herbert Hauser this afternoon asking if the Neptune Beach committee would pay Clarence Lane's expenses to the coast. If a favorable answer is received Lane will make the trip leaving here on Wednesday.
