

Clarence Lane Sure To Swim At Neptune Beach Meet

Duke Kahanamoku Not Going,
He Says, Owing To Some
Leg Trouble

Duke P. Kahanamoku will not represent Hawaii at Neptune Beach, California, on the twenty-eighth of this month.

Confirmation of the story that the champion would not compete was secured last night. Duke is suffering from leg trouble and were he to compete would not be able to do himself full justice.

Now that Duke is going to stay at home it is as good as settled that Clarence Lane, who is leaving Wednesday for St. Mary's College with Noble Kauhane, will be one of the competitors at Neptune Beach. As to "Stubby" Kruger it is all up in the air; he may go and he may not.

It was practically decided yesterday that local admirers of Clarence Lane will back him in the trip with full expectations that he will be among one of the competitors present at Neptune Beach when the big meet comes off.
