

OUTRIGGER CLUB WILL SEND SWIM STARS TO MAUI

Duke Kahanamoku Will Accompany Natators; Meet Should Be Big Boost

Ten members of the Outrigger Club will go to Maui on May 1 to compete against the best swimmers on the Valley Island. Franklin Richardson and John Watt have been making the arrangements for the tournament and Watt, who is now on Maui, has written that Maui will welcome the Honolulu natators. Duke Kahanamoku, the world's champion, will make the trip with the Outrigger team, although competing under Hui Nalu colors.

This will be the first invasion of Maui by local swimmers as a club, and the meet promises to be a big boost for swimming on that island. There is an excellent tank at Puunene and interest will gradually be increased. The visit of the Outrigger team promises to be one of the best tours that has been launched. It will naturally bring the swimmers of the islands closer together, and fast performances will insure a rapid growth in the aquatic circles at Puunene.
