

"Y" BOYS' CLUB TO SWIM TONIGHT

Neat Little Meet Planned For Association Tank — No Admission Charged

Everything is lined up nicely for the Y. M. C. A. boys' swimming meet which will be held in the "Y" tank tonight. Some of the best young blood in Honolulu will take part in these events.

Eight events are scheduled on the program and they will be hotly contested, judging from the results of the preliminaries. The program for tonight is:

20 Yard dash, for boys under 75 pounds.

20-Yard under-water swim (open).

40 Yard dash, for boys under 100 pounds.

40 Yard back stroke (open).

50 Yard dash (open).

Competitive diving.

200-Yard relay (5 men).

Four Teams Competing

The entries are divided into four teams—Yale, Harvard, Princeton and Cornell. The Princeton team, having won the indoor baseball series, is outstrong for the swimming honors and succeeded in getting Albert Minvielle, star Outrigger Club swimmer, on their team. The Harvards have signed up both Whittle brothers for the midget races. The Yales have some fast swimmers in Matsugoma, Kwack, Young and Donne.

The swimming will start at seven-thirty p. m. in the "Y" tank. No admission will be charged.
