

THIS introduces Walter Macfarlane Jr., of the Whites, aboard his nifty little pony. Walter starred in the polo games played at Kapiolani Park during Fair Week. He is a fine little rider and when it comes to driving the little white balls through the goal marks Walter is always on the job. In the recent games he accounted for the majority of the points scored by the Whites.

