
DUKE WAS DUE HOME ON BOARD SHIP LURLINE

Duke Kahanamoku was due home this morning on board the steamer Lurline, but when the Matson boat pulled in the Duke was not present. It appears that he stayed over in San Francisco to see and write up the Golden Gate swim.

The Duke appears to be in no hurry et get home although he is to be inducted the moment he appears in Honolulu. The star says that the Red Cross tour was a big sucess.
