

OAHU VOLLEYBALL LEAGUE TO BEGIN

Oahu Prison Crack Teams In Exhibition Game At Y. M. C. A. Hall Tonight

With eight teams represented, the Oahu Volleyball League opens its season tonight at half-past seven in the Central Y. M. C. A. games hall. An exhibition game between two crack teams from the Oahu Prison, where volleyball is played at its best, will officially open the league season.

Kakaako and Palama clubs meet in the official opening match. Both of these teams have been practising faithfully and should give a good account of themselves. Ben Clarke is in charge of the Palama Club and John Gomes has drilled the Kakaako men.

On Friday evening the O. P. Athletic Club plays the Korean Athletic Club in the opener. The P. B. C., of bowling fame, tackle the Outrigger Canoe Club in the second match. Two army teams have also entered and will play their first matches later in the schedule. There will be a double-header every Monday and Friday in the "Y" games hall.
