

OPENING BATTLE ON TAP THURSDAY

J. Ashman Beaven, president of the Oahu Service League, sent out letters this morning to the various team managers in the Oahu Service Basketball League asking them to forward a list of their players to him. The league is endeavoring to secure sanction of its schedule by entry into the Hawaiian branch of the A. A. U. and the good sportsmen in the latter organization are aiding the movement in every way.

Included in the letter sent by President Beaven is the schedule, slightly revised. The first games of the schedule published are dropped to the bottom of the list and the second set opens the season.

Schedule

The season opens on Thursday, January 30, with the Coast Defense meeting the College of Hawaii in the first game and the Marines tackling the Wireless in the second game.

The second doubleheader will be played Sunday afternoon, February 2, with the Signal Corps meeting the Department Hospital and the Outrigger Club tackling the 1st Hawaiian.
