

COAST GUNNERS WHIP WIGWAGGER BASKETBALL MEN

It was no trouble at all for the Coast Defense team to trim the Signal Corps yesterday afternoon in a regular Oahu-Service Basketball League game at the armory. The final score was 68 to 16. While the Signal Corps played hard, the coast gunners had the edge in the passing and shooting.

The second game yesterday was forfeited by the Department Hospital to the 1st Hawaiian Infantry by a score of 2 to 0. The 1st Hawaiians played an exhibition game with the Argonauts and lost by a score of 66 to 18. The Argonauts will meet the Marines, champion team of the Oahu-Service League, on Thursday night while the Signal Corps will play the College of Hawaii.

Malone and Levenson started for the winners in the first game while Canario was about the best player for the losers. In the exhibition game Kaleikau was the best man for the Argonauts.
